Chapter 11 Case NO.

08-13555 (JMP)

OBJECTION TO DEBTOR'S ONE HUNDRED SEVENTY-SEVENTH OMNIBUS MOTION TO OBJECT TO CLAIMS (NO LIABILITY NON-DEBTOR EMPLOYEE CLAIMS)

I, Cecelia Butler-McLaughlin object to the Debtor's motion seeking to expunge Claim No. 21508, in the amount of $133,207.40. The basis of the objection is that the Debtor has no liability to non-Debtor employee claims, however, every single document I received had the name of this Debtor on it, Lehman Brothers Holdings, Inc., including the name on the notice from Lehman Brothers Holdings, Inc., indicating that they weren't going to honor payment of my severance package.

- 1) On September 9, 2008 I received a Severance Agreement from Lehman Brothers, Inc. I agreed to the terms of the Severance Agreement, executed same and timely mailed it back.
- 2) On September 30, 2008 I received a letter from Lehman Brothers Holdings, Inc. advising that my Severance Agreement would not be paid. (Exhibit "A")
- 3) On January 14, 2009 I received an email that I might qualify to be part of a "Lehman Brothers WARN" case. Thereafter, I contacted them and inquired how to join that action and was advised that I didn't qualify to join because there were not enough employees at my specific job location. (Exhibit "B")
- 4) On October 14, 2008 I received a notice from EPIQ Systems with instructions on how to download proof of claim forms in the Lehman Brothers Holding, Inc. Thereafter I completed and filed them with EPIQ. I was given a specific website and downloaded all clam forms which were captioned under the Lehman Brothers Holdings, Inc. case. (Exhibit "C")
- 5) On April 6, 2009 I filed a timely general unsecured claim, No. 21508 with EPIQ in the amount of $133,207.40 the back up to the claim was of course my Severance Agreement. (Exhibit "C")
- 6) On July 8, 2009 I accessed my proof of claim from the website. (Exhibit "C")
- 7) On September 21, 2009 all of my claims were filed and stamped "received" by EPIQ. (Exhibit "C")
- 8) On November 19, 2009 I received notice from EPIQ that my claims were filed stamped and received by them. (Exhibit "C")

- 9) One April 1, 2010, October 13, 2010, December 7, 2010, March 25, 2010 I received a motion to disallow certain of my claims for differing reasons. I did not object to any of these motions. (Exhibit "C")
- 10) On August 19, 2011 I received the instant motion to object to this claim and would like the court to deny the Debtor's motion and to allow my claim in full. Their basis for the objection was that I have filed my proof of claim with the wrong entity, however, I can't see how that is possible, after I properly followed every single instruction received by EPIQ and was even told that my claims were received. (Exhibit "C")

Relief Requested

I was a loyal employee of Lehman Brothers, Inc. for more than 20 years. Back on September 15, 2008, when the Debtor filed for bankruptcy my whole entire life was uprooted both emotionally and financially. To date, I still have been unable to find employment.

It is prejudicial for the Debtor to exclude me from sharing in any potential distribution of this Debtor's estate. It is not fair what this Debtor has done by misleading and providing to not only myself, but to all of the Lehman employees information to file claims in the Lehman Brothers Holding, Inc. case. I was led to believe from every single document I received (all are attached hereto) that Lehman Brothers Holdings, Inc. was the proper case to file my claims in. It is a shame that they are trying to alleviate their fiduciary responsibility in paying the former employees and to "pass the buck", as they say onto a different Debtor entity without properly noticing same.

As stated above, every single document I received was related to the Lehman Brothers Holdings, Inc. case. I never received anything on the Lehman Brothers, Inc. case. I have every single document sent to me, including the envelope and receipts from the post office of my mail receipts in order to file the documents with EPIQ. I don't believe that I was served with claims date information in the Lehman Brothers case by EPIQ.

After investigating this claims objection motion with an attorney, they advised that Lehman Brothers, Inc., had a separate SIPC proceeding and through EPIQ they allegedly sent out similar documents for employees to file claims in that proceeding. The attorney was able to provide me with a copy of those documents, however, I had not received them and the deadline to file a claim in that case has passed. I unfortunately could not afford to pay to the attorney to represent me in the matter.

I respectfully ask that this court allow me a timely filed claim in this case, or in the alternative, permission to file a timely filed claim in the Lehman Brothers, Inc. SIPC matter.

LEHMAN BROTHERS HOLDINGS INC.

September 30, 2008

Dear Ms. Butler-McLaughlin:

We are disappointed to inform you that as a result of the bankruptcy of Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. and the placement of Lehman Brothers Inc. into a liquidation proceeding under the Securities Investor Protection Act (SIPA), Lehman Brothers is unfortunately no longer able to provide the salary continuation or other payments described in your separation agreement. As a result, you will not receive a payment on October 3, 2008 or thereafter.

You may continue to be covered under any current medical, dental and/or vision benefits through the end of your original salary continuation date as set out in your separation agreement. Because you will no longer receive salary continuation payments from which your employee contributions for these benefits can be deducted, you will be billed monthly for these costs. An invoice will be mailed to your home with instructions on how and when to return your payment. Your current coverage is in effect and will remain in place subject to timely payment of your contributions.

The cost to you for medical, dental and/or vision coverage will remain the same through December 2008 but may increase in the future. As of your termination date, you may be eligible to continue these benefits for up to 18 months under COBRA.

For other voluntary benefits you may be covered under, you will receive a mailing directly from the insurance carrier to continue your coverage on a direct bill basis (for example, MetLife Auto & Home, Mass Mutual Group Variable Universal Life Insurance, Hyatt Legal).

As a matter of federal law, the assets of the Lehman Brothers Savings Plan (401(k) plan) and Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. Retirement Plan (pension plan) are protected from the claims of Lehman Brothers' creditors. Information about these entitlements is available through Fidelity NetBenefits at www.netbenefits.fidelity.com or by calling 1-866-534-6266.

If you are owed additional severance payments that cannot be paid at this time as a result of the various Lehman bankruptcy proceedings, you will have claims for these amounts that can be filed as part of the bankruptcy process. At some point in the future, you will be receiving notification of the procedures for the filing of claims and the date by which the claims must be filed. A deadline for filing claims has not yet been set.

Also, if you have not yet done so, you may wish to apply for unemployment insurance benefits in your state. Information about applying for unemployment benefits is enclosed.

We recognize that this is difficult news and that you may have questions about this situation. Please call the Lehman Brothers HR Service Center at 212.526.2363. They can answer your questions or direct your call to someone who can.

Very truly yours,

LEHMAN BROTHERS HOLDINGS INC.
